

Invoice Finance Pricing Offer And A 5 Star Review - August 2017

In this month's magazine we have details of a recent 5 star rated service review given by a client about FundInvoice, a pricing example for selective invoice finance and a new special offer on bad debt protection.

We also have articles about flexible finance for both recruiters struggling to get funding against RPOs, and construction sector companies needing to raise money based on the strength of their customers, rather than their own company.

With kind regards,

5 Star Review For FundInvoice

FundInvoice has just received another 5 star review from a customer that we helped find a factoring facility last year.

Good news because it shows that they are still happy with what we found for them . . .

Half Price Bad Debt Protection For 6 Months

We have seen several speculative articles recently suggesting that the economy may be heading for a further downturn. Whether this is the case or not, time will tell.

Bad debt protection is something you might want to think about whilst there is a half price offer to be had . . . details of the bad debt protection offer

Addressing Narrow Profit Margins For Recruiters Selling to RPOs

We help find recruitment invoice finance for a lot of UK recruiters, so we are very familiar with the issues that they can face when dealing with RPOs.

Not least of which is how to source finance when they have very narrow profit margins, that are being continually squeezed . . .

Construction Financing For Contractors

Many contractors are unaware that their own financial position is of little importance when applying for construction finance.

The criteria are based on the position of the end customer, therefore you can piggyback on their financial strength . . .
